The BLUE and Gold

Annual Publication of

Columbian High School

Tiffin, Ohio

EDITED BY

THE BLUE and GOLD STAFF

Representing The

Senior Class of 1926

FOREWORD

In the publishing of this book, it has been our constant purpose to produce a lasting record of the Personnel, Activities and Achievements
Of This School Year, 1926
which, we hope, in after years may be cherished for the memories it renews.

DEDICATION

To Our Parents
whose love, interest and sacrifice has kept us on the path of knowledge all these years, and to our Teachers, who have guided us on this path and made it possible to reach our goal, we, the Class of 1926
sincerely dedicate this volume.

In Memoriam

MR. FRANK KERSHNER

Full many a gem of purest ray serene
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen
And waste its sweetness on the desert air.

In Memoriam

GERALDINE SILCOX

Who died in her Junior Year

A ROSEBUD

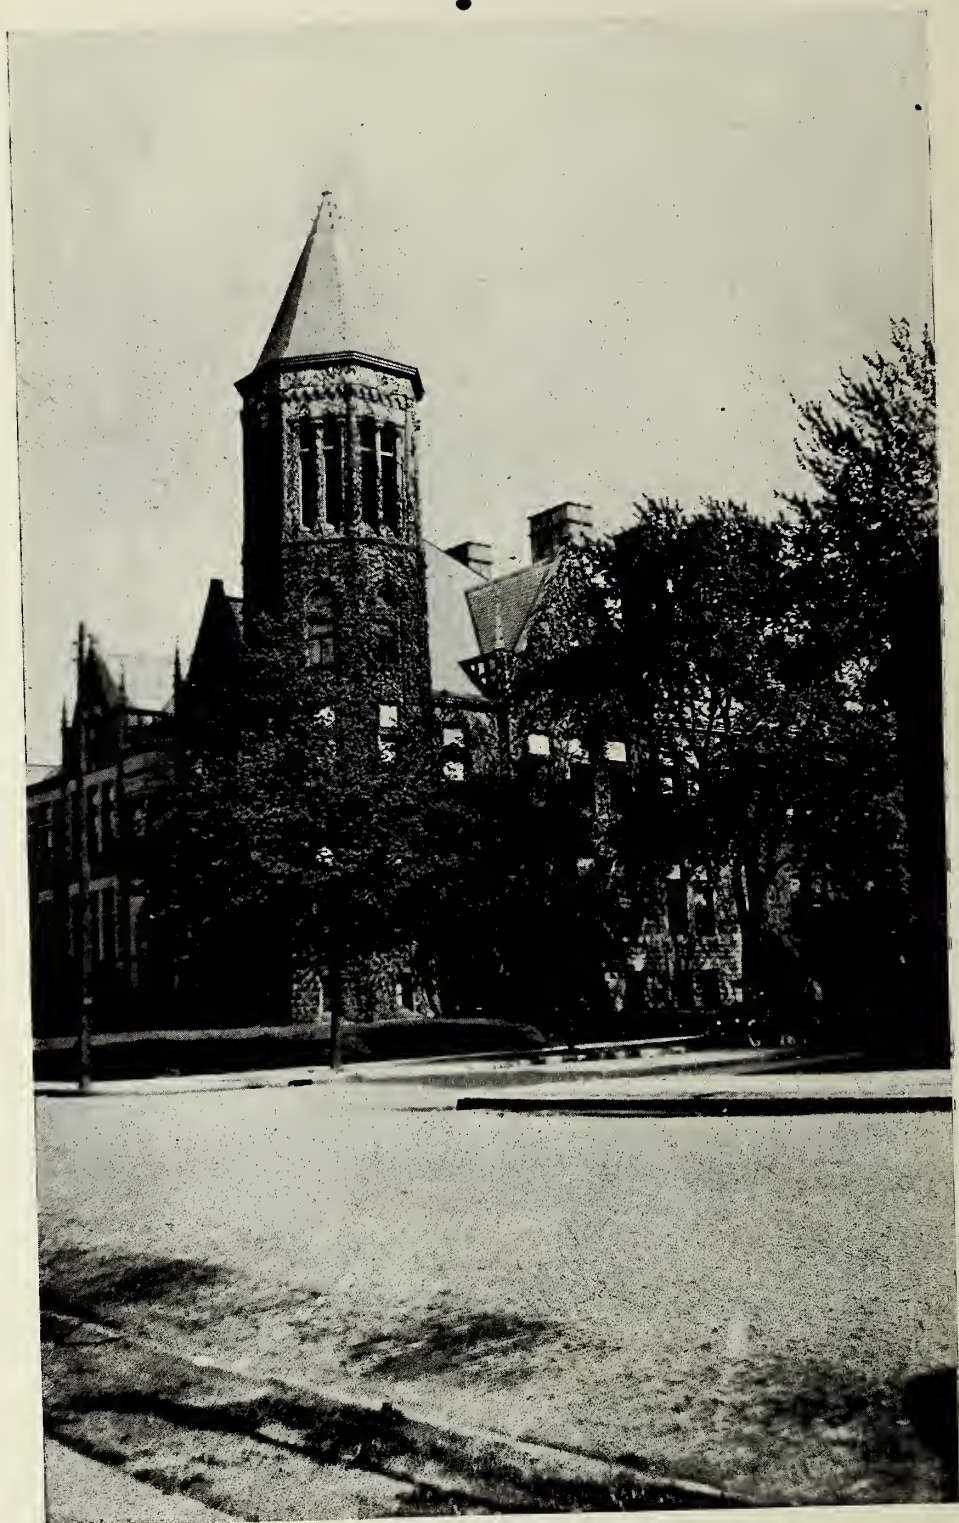

In the garden of my friendship
A little rosebud grew;
It was fairest in the Springtime.
Bathed in morning dew.

And we found one early morning
A frost had passed that way;
Left its mark on all the flowers,
Before the light of day.

Flowers died from frost and coldness,
And there among the rest,
Drooping to the gravel pathway
The rosebud I loved best.

And though from its perfect petals,
A great plant never grew,
Earth has left a sweeter mem'ry,
The mem'ry of a rose.

BLUE and GOLD

Lady Mary, demure and fair,
Sunbeams dancing in her hair,
Hangs above the mantel there,
Smiling down at me.
Sparkling eyes of deepest blue,
Brocaded gown of azure hue,
Sweetest lady, gay and true,
Painted there I see.

Belle of each colonial ball,
Big in heart, in stature small,
At Banquets, toast of one and all,
Dainty little fairy.
Quaint nosegay of blue and gold,
For-get-me-nots and marigold,
The beauty's colors ne'er grow old,
Pretty Lady Mary.

The Senior Class History

September 5, 1922—The gate was opened and two hundred and twenty-five "greenies" flocked into T. H. S.—that is, we became members of Tiffin High although we were obliged to go to the Monroe Street building. One consolation, we didn't suffer any because of our isolation from the upper classmen.

November 24, 1922 marked our debut into High School Society. Wasn't that "menu" for the party just scrumptuous? Everything from cranberries to mints—in either imagination or reality—mostly imagination!

We were justly proud of our representation on the Tiffinian Staff. Who were they? Eleanor McKinney, Lucile Frey, Wendell McGinnis, and Eugene Shepherd. And our contributions! The Tiffinian would have been a "reg'lar fizzle" without us!

One of our classmates, Evelyn Smith, won first place in the music contest.

Then our last green day. We enjoyed it to the fullest extent because we journeyed all the way to Bascom—pardon me, Meadow Brook—to have a picnic. Those eats! Yum! -Yum!

When we were mere Freshmen we thought we were happy but in September, 1923, when we moved to the Columbian Building, we felt as if we were "sitting on the top of the world."

We had an honest-to-goodness class meeting in Room 8 and elected:

Wendell McGinnis	President
Annabel Lott	Vice President
Lucille Frey	Secretary
Jesse Williams	Treasurer

Our Tiffinian Staff members were Ruth DeMuth, Lucille Weddell, Eugene Shepherd, and Myles O'Malley.

Many Sophomore girls joined the "Phis" while the Literary Society Eriston claimed a number of the "Soph" boys; others joined the Glee Club and the Dramatic Club, then a new organization. A few Sophomores "tooted" or "scraped" in the Band and Orchestra.

At any rate, the "Sophs" had musical ability and it was quite evident when, in March, Mildred McConnahey, Ruth DeMuth, Genevieve Byers, and Judson Ehrbar represented Tiffin Hi in the music contests. John Keller made the debating team.

Then came May 23 bringing with it a merry party at the Masonic Temple. Orange and silver, our class colors, and the sunburst rose, the "perfect" class flower made their first appearance, and proved that the Class of '26 has good taste.

Then June and "exams!" "Nuf sed!"

Soon after school opened in September, 1924, the Class of '26—now "reg'lar" Juniors—elected:

Eleanor McKinney	President
John Keller	Vice President
Raymond Welter	Secretary
Herman Ehrenfried	Treasurer

Lorene Kennedy, Arlene Yundt, Jesse Williams, and Harold Thompson ably represented us on the Tiffinian Staff.

This year Raymond Barrick represented us on the debating team while four of the six members of the Girls' Debating Team were Juniors. Our debaters were Lorene Kennedy, Annabel Lott, Ruth DeMuth, and Elizabeth Royer.

Our music contestants were Eleanor McKinney, Mana Sutphin, Ruth DeMuth, Genevieve Byers, and Judson Ehrbar.

The Junior Fair, given April 22, went into history as one of the most delightful and perhaps one of the most successful affairs ever held at T. H. S. From the Fair and the Bake Sale, thanks to our mothers, we reaped a harvest of gold.

And what did we do with our wealth? Spent it on that memorable 1925 Junior-Senior Prom held at the Masonic Temple on May Day. In our opinion the Class of '25 was royally entertained.

Our Junior athletes were Ward Barrick, Ray Welter, Albert Wellman, and Wendell McGinnis.

As for our last year—it has been the most pleasant year of our school life.

The "Pilots" of our "Ship of State" were:

Jesse Williams	President
Eugene Shepherd	Vice President
John Zartman	Secretary
Herman Ehrenfried	Treasurer

For the Blue and Gold Staff we elected Lorene Kennedy, Ruth DeMuth, Ruth Arnold, Arlene Yundt, Annabel Lott, Elizabeth Royer, Eugene Shepherd, Morris Hahn, and Raymond Welter.

Our Tiffinian this year, with the help of Helen Beidelman, Eleanor McKinney, Wendell McGinnis, and John Keller, was indeed a most successful school paper.

We have taken an active part in athletics. Ward Barrick, Ray Welter, Jesse Williams, Bob Kurtzman, Herman Ehrenfried, Bud Haefling, Alex McCartan, Ab Wellman, and Ligouri Amlin were on the football team, while Wendell McGinnis, Jesse Williams, Ward Barrick, and Herman Ehrenfried made excellent Basketball players.

With the aid of our cheer leaders, Elizabeth Royer, Ruth Arnold, Howard Ehrenfried, and Kenneth Rosenberger, we cheered our boys on to victory.

For the first time in the history of Tiffin High School, we had a Girls' Basketball team. The Seniors who made the team were Annabel Lott, Martha Beck, and Iris Wagner.

Our debaters were Elizabeth Royer, Annabel Lott, Judson Ehrbar, Jesse Williams, Emanuel Matthews, Wendell McGinnis, and John Keller.

The Hi-Y claimed ten of our number; the Girls Reserve, twenty; the Philomathean Literary Society, twenty-nine; the Literary Society Eriston, nineteen; the Dramatic Club, thirty-three; the Glee Club, six; the Band, three; and the Orchestra, four.

Soon after the mid-year "exams" the names of the honor students, Lorene Kennedy and Ruth DeMuth, were announced. Congratulations, Girls! We are proud of you.

Under the capable management of the committees our Senior Class Party was a huge success. Our President made an ideal toastmaster.

The History of the Junior Class

"Oh wad some power the giftie gie us
To see oursel's as ithers see us!"

Of course it is impossible for me to see the Junior Class History as others see it, but I will do my best.

Three years we have been called High School Students, and now we are about to enter upon our Senior year!

On September 4, 1923, we became members of our dearly beloved high school as "Freshies." Fortunately we did not have to undergo the indignities of upperclassmen as did our predecessors, because we remained at the Monroe Street School. It was with great pride that we became associated with our High School friends through the Philomathean and Eriston Literary Societies.

On the Tiffinian Staff were Louise Mizen, Verne Bero, Fred Tillotson and Daniel Koch.

A class party in March was our only social activity, and thus our "annee verte," ended.

The next fall we entered Columbian High with a feeling of superiority. This however lasted for only one day, after meeting the so-called, "know-it-all" Seniors.

Our class was immediately organized and we elected these officers:

President—Harry Gear.

Vice President—Robert Martin.

Secretary—Elinor Gahris.

Treasurer—Merrit Lucas.

Crimson and Silver were chosen as our class colors, and crimson and white carnations as the class flowers.

We were represented on the Tiffinian Staff by Dorothy Moore, Louise Mizen, Robert Farrell and Ned Porter.

Dwight Haley was our sole class football player, while Edwin Gilcher took honors in Debate.

On May 15, we put on a delightful class party for ourselves, thus bidding good-bye to our second, or Sophomore year.

Then came the best year of all! The Junior year! Yes, we were honest and true Juniors! Not for long though only a short stay and my! how time does fly!

We became very determined to live up to our class motto, "Labor Conquers All", so elected these class officers to guide us in our work.

President—Paul Sherck.
Vice President—Harry Gear.
Secretary—Fred Tillotson.
Treasurer—Meritt Lucas.

On our Junior Tiffinian Staff we had: Betty Leister, Louise Mizen, Ralph Smith and Paul Williams.

In April our class cooperated by issuing the school paper for that month.

Of course, many of our class joined the various organizations of the high school—the literary societies, Dramatic Club, Glee Club, Athletic Association, the Hi-Y, the Science Club, and Girl Reserves.

We were proud to have a Junior, who certainly has won the praise of his classmates as an athlete, to be Captain of our Football Team. We call him "Stick" Haley.

Four Junior boys played on the regular boys' basketball team. They were: "Jim" Fingerhuth, "Howdy" Beisner, Paul Sherck and Stick Haley. The class was proud of you boys when you overwhelmed the Junior Home team with a twenty-six to twenty-three victory.

The girls also came to the front in basketball. We showed good taste when we picked Mary Ellen Hasemeyer, Josephine Black, Almeda Barlecamp, Louise Mizen and Jane Naylor to represent our class.

Yes, our class has originality. We staged a Faculty vs. Junior basketball game with Jesse Williams as referee. Everybody laughed until it was torture to laugh any more. This and a Bake Sale on March 27, a motion picture show, Douglas Fairbanks in "Flirting With Fate," and a frolicking Junior Fair, were "our" ways of earning money for the Junior-Senior banquet.

Nevertheless, this did not put an end to the fulfillment of our motto: "Labor Conquers All" until on Friday, May 7, at the Masonic Hall we gave, I believe, to the Seniors a splendid time and heaps of good wishes.

How much we have enjoyed our Junior Year! To be in a position to condescend to Sophomores! To learn the stories of all the great literary men together with their works! To follow Napoleon throughout his eventful career!

To help Cicero put down the conspiracy of Cataline! And to thread through the intricate mazes of Geometry and Algebra! All this, of course, with the help of our dear instructors.

It is with these happy remembrances that we anxiously await the day when we may be called "Seniors"—a name that we have longed for these past eleven years. Senior Rah! Senior Rah! Rah!, Rah! Senior!

Jane C. Naylor, Class of '27.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As "Freshies" we started our High School career in September 1924. Fortunately the fine new Junior High School building was just completed and we spent our Freshman year there. We still have many pleasant memories of that happy year. It was our first experience in real gymnasium work under the leadership of Coach Marion Struble.

During the year a basketball tournament was held between all of the sections of the Junior High boys and girls. Section One of the Freshman team was the champion girls' team and Section Three of the Freshman team was the champion boys' team.

We enjoyed the distinction of having "Jim" Sertell as a Freshman on the football team. "Jimmy" made a fine guard.

Another new feature to us was the general assemblies held once a week which were very enjoyable. All pupils took part in this work at some time during the school year.

The crowning feature came in May when we had our first Class party.

As upperclassmen we had to leave dear old Junior High School and were compelled to enter Columbian High School, as Sophomores in September 1925.

We felt quite shy and very much out of place the first few weeks as we were always stumbling into the wrong classroom and as it seemed to us receiving a cool reception wherever we went.

In September we elected these officers:

President—John Niederhauser.
Vice President—Robert Allman.
Secretary—Ruth Anderson.
Treasurer—Joseph Martin.

Our class colors were chosen as purple and gold. Class flower, lavender sweet pea, and "Knowledge with Labor is Success" as our motto.

The Sophomores are well represented in the Dramatic Club, Glee Club and Literary Societies. Those representing the Sophomores on the Tiffinian Staff are Ruth Homan, Ward Creeger and Brewer Pearson.

In football "Jim" Sertell and Aaron Warner were our athletes. "Jimmy" also represented us in basketball.

This year we had our second girls' basketball team for the Class of '28, so now we have the pleasure of presenting Elizabeth Chamberlain, Annabelle Smith, Madelon Wetter and Mary Louise Conrad representing us on the squad. Hard work was shown and we won three out of the five games played.

Our Sophomore Class Party was held in May and went over big. Let us hope the Class of '28 may go through its High School Course with the goal as "Knowledge with Labor is Success."

Mary Louise Conrad, '28.

JUNIOR HI

“We leave, anon, this well loved spot,
Behind us, a record without a blot,
Still, past yon mountain’s craggy peak,
Is the distant goal for which we seek.”

Freshman Class History

On the eighth day of September, 1925, one hundred and seventy-six pupils entered the Freshman Class of the Junior High School. This is the second class to enter the new building as Freshmen.

The class is divided into six sections of about thirty pupils each. The pupils composing sections I and II are taking the Latin course, while the remaining sections take the English course.

Our class was not organized, but is well represented on the Tiffinian Staff by Ralph Keil, editor-in-chief of the Junior High Section; Inez Webster and Marion Good, society editors; Margaret Wetzel and Richard Stoner, literary editors; Dorothy DeBusman and Edward Lautermilch, sports editors; and Mary Jane Moorehead, joke editor.

During the year a very successful Girls' Glee Club was formed under the supervision of Miss Bastian. This is composed chiefly of Freshman girls.

One of the chief and perhaps the most successful of the functions of the year was the presentation of the operetta, "The Gypsy Rover," in which the Freshman girls of the Glee Club played an important part. It was presented in the beautiful auditorium of our Junior High School under the direction of the Misses Bastian, Fisher, Dietzel, Rechtenwald and Liles. The Freshmen who portrayed leading characters are: Ruth Grossman, Inez Webster, Vera Billman, Ralph Keil, and Vinnie Dolch. The music was furnished by the Junior High Orchestra.

We are proud of the members of our class who have entered the ranks of the Junior High Orchestra and the High School Band, which are successfully directed by Miss Bastian and Mr. Foght, respectively.

During the months of March and April a basketball tournament, which aroused much enthusiasm, was conducted by the Junior High. The boys of the section three team of the Freshman class were proclaimed the champions. It has been stated that the Freshman class has an "athletic future," and we look forward to participating in the athletics of the Columbian High School next year.

Our assemblies have mostly taken the form of interesting playlets under the capable direction of Miss Dietzel and Miss Fisher. We have been very fortunate in securing various eminent men of the city to address us in our general assemblies, which once a month take the form of a chapel service.

Having struggled through the mid-year examinations and certain

The Dramatic Club

The passing of the class of 1926 marks the third milestone in the path of the Dramatic Club, and with the record of four public performances behind it, the Club holds a reputation in the school and in the community seldom attained by any other high school organization.

Year by year the Club has grown, striving always to make each public performance better than the previous one. The first public presentation of the Dramatic Club was four One-Act Plays: "The Beau of Bath"; "The Beezer of Lui"; "Elolements While You Wait"; and "The Finger of God". Shortly afterwards came the first full length play "Grumpy". The next year the Club presented an unusually successful play "Clarence", and then this year, "The Youngest" which is still fresh in our memories.

The Club also presented for the pleasure of the students of the High School, "The Pot Boiler", a one-act satire directed by Annabel Lott. Those in the cast were:

Thomas Pinikles Sud—a playwright	James Sertell
Wouldbe—a novice	Carl Wyndham
Mr. Ivory—the financier	Ray Welter
Mr. Ruler—the hero	Ward Creeger
Miss Ivory—the heroine	Virginia Hanson
Mr. Inkwell—the villain	Kenneth Rosenberger
Mrs. Pencil—the woman	Annabel Lott

On Wednesday evening, April 28, the Club presented "The Youngest", a comedy in three acts by Philip Barry, to a large and enthusiastic audience. "The Youngest" is an ingenious variation of the inferiority complex theme, in which the hero, a downtrodden son, comes into contact with a charming busybody. The youngest eventually learns to assert himself, and turns upon his appressors in splendid style. The play was splendidly presented by the following cast:

Charlotte Winslow	Arlene Yundt
Mark Winslow	James Fingerhuth
Martha Winslow	Ola Niederhauser
Alan Martin	Ward Barrick
Augusta Winslow Martin	Martha Beck
Oliver Winslow	Edward Porter
Richard Winslow	Edwin Gilcher
Nancy Blake	Betty Royer
Katie	Marjorie Uberroth

The scene of the play is laid in the living room of the Winslow home in a small New York State city, in the early summer.

"The Youngest" was directed by Miss Mary Hartmann as have been all of the other successes of the Dramatic Club, and it has been through her unfailing efforts and energy that the Club has attained the high place that it now holds.

The officers of the club for this year have been:

First Semester	Second Semester
Eleanor McKinney President	Edwin Gilcher
Fred Tillotson Vice President	Elizabeth Royer
Jane Naylor Secretary	Jane Naylor
Ruth DeMuth Treasurer	Dwight Haley

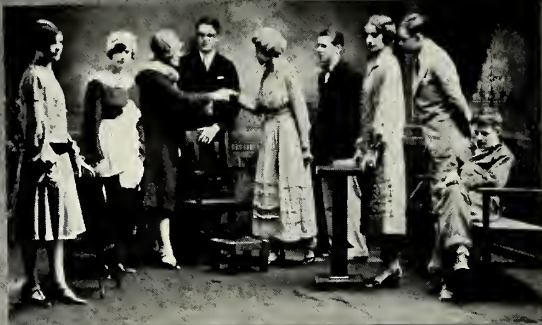

The play was a success through the cooperation of the following members:

Financial Manager	Kathryn Friderici
Stage Manager	Robert Martin
Electrician	Howard Grendon
Master of Props	Robert Allman

MUSIC

The man that hath no music in himself
Nor is not moved by concord of sweet sounds
Is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils.
The motions of his spirit are dull as night
And his affections dark as Erebus.
Let no such man be trusted.

CLASS SONG

RUTH ARNOLD

INTRO

OUR CLASS IS KNOWN BY THE YEAR TWENTY SIX, WE'RE READY TO BATTLE WITH LIFE'S GAMES AND TRICKS JUST FOUR YEARS AGO—

SO TWO IT SEEMS NOT A DAY WE STARTED AS FRESH MEN SO HAPPY AND GAY, BUT NOW WE ARE SENIORS AND FARE

WE'LL MUST BE SAID, WE SAY IT NOT EASY FOR WE'RE FULL OF REGRET A PLACE WILL BE HELD RIGHT NEXT TO OUR

HEART, FOR THOSE WHOM WE LOVE BUT FROM WHOM WE MUST PART

CHORUS

FARE WELL TO CLASSMATES TO TEACHERS AND FRIENDS FOR OUR HAPPY SCHOOL DAYS HAVE SOON REACHED THEIR

AND TO YOU I TIE IN HIGH WITH YOUR GLORIES AND CHARMS WE BID YOU A FOND GOOD-BYE

CLASS SONG—SECOND VERSE

We'll start on our journey determined to win,
Tho we realize that our cares just begin;
But we've learned to conquer them day after day,
And by this phrase, "If there's a will there's a way."

We'll not be discouraged, for our teachers did their part
To make us feel so certain right from the start.
So now we must leave you, again let us say
Farewell to our classmates and happy school days.

TIFFIN HIGH SONG

M. Dermott
Ruth Arnold.

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment in 2/4 time. It consists of six systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various chords, eighth notes, and rests, with some measures containing a '7' indicating a seventh chord. The score is framed by a decorative border with floral motifs at the corners.

Tiffin High Song

Tiffin, Tiffin, Home of victorious men
Tiffin, Tiffin, big T-I-F-F-I-N,
Always in the right,
Always wins the fight;
Never say die,
Always say try,
Good old Tiffin High.
Tiffin, Tiffin, Tiffin, can not be surpassed,
Tiffin, Tiffin, Tiffin, will fight to the last.
Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Tiffin High, Rah!
Victory shall be to old Tiffin High.

The Gypsy Rover

The members of the Junior and Columbian High School Glee Clubs, directed by Miss Bastian, public school teacher of Music, presented very commendably the romantic musical comedy, "The Gypsy Rover," on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 8 and 9 in the Junior High School auditorium. Miss Bastian surely deserves a great deal of credit for this splendid performance.

Miss Liles, Miss Rechtenwald, Miss Deitzel, Miss Fisher and Mr. Hutchinson are to be commended very highly for their assistance in various ways which helped to make this musicale the success it was.

The list of characters in the order as they appeared was as follows:

Meg (Rob's foster mother) an old Gypsy woman	Mana Sutphin
Zara, the belle of the Gypsy camp	Inez Webster
Marto, Meg's husband	John Zartman
Sinfo, Gypsy lad in love with Zara	John Alcorn
Rob, afterward Sir Gilbert Home, the Gypsy Rover	Paul Courtney
Lady Constance, daughter of Sir George Martendale	Ruth Grossman
Sir George Martendale, an English gentleman	Vinnie Dolch
Lord Craven, an English fop, "Doncha know"	John D. Weller
Nina, Sir George's second daughter	Vera Billman
Captain Jerome, captain in English army	Ralph Keil
Sir Tovy Lyon, a social butterfly	Robert Allman
Mr. Corkle, a song publisher of London	John Neiderhauser
Lackey, the butler	Harry Swartz

Girls' Glee Club

Another successful year for the Girls' Glee Club will soon end. Although Miss Bastian had met most of us last year, when the tryouts were held—one felt fate was surely against her as Miss Bastian, after some quaking Ahs—and Ohs—, announced second soprano or alto when you felt sure that soprano was best for you to sing. The officers for 1926 were: President, Virginia Dodd; Vice President, Kathryn Gross; Secretary, Alice Rohrer; Treasurer, Betty Leister; Pianist, Ruth DeMuth.

The Girls very successfully entertained the school at the third Special Assembly with the following program:

Good Bye Summer	}	Glee Club
Morning-
Chit Chat
Pretty Primrose Flower	}	Girls' Sextette
I Passed by Your Window
Piano Solo—Ruth Anderson
Duets—I'll Never Play with You Again	}	Mana Sutphin Kathryn Gross
Won't You Come and Be My Playmate
The Swallows	}	Glee Club
The Song of Spring
In the Garden of Tomorrow

Mana Sutphin and Kathryn Gross were selected from the Glee Club of Tiffin High to take part in the All State Chorus, given for the pleasure of the Ohio State Teachers Convention, at Columbus December 29, 1926.

The Girls sang at the County Teachers meeting and before the Women's Club.

The Seniors of the Club wish the Glee Club of 1927 a very happy and prosperous year.

The Band

In the fall of 1921 a call was made for all would-be musicians to come to the first band practice. Needless to say, there was a good response to that call, and from that time T. H. S. has had a band.

The band has made much progress since its organization. It has been composed of school students, on the average of thirty in number. At present there are twenty-four members, three of whom are graduating this year.

Since 1923 several efforts have been made to obtain uniforms for the band, but not until 1925 was much said or done about it.

It was at an assembly concert that the band surprised the student body by donning their "Would-be" uniforms. Each member put on a white sailor hat, which, though it was only a joke, showed that the band, in order to be complete, needed uniforms.

In the fall of 1925, the band members were measured for their first real uniforms. To be sure, they are no everyday uniforms! They consist of navy blue trousers with gold stripes, and caps and capes of royal blue and gold.

The band made its first appearance in uniform at a concert given in the Junior High School Auditorium. The concert was a great success, for it showed what a band could do if it had practice.

A great deal of the credit for the uniforms goes to our Parent-Teacher Association, which donated the greater part of the necessary money.

The custom has been for the Band to practice only one hour per week, but this is rather a short rehearsal, as many of the band members know. It is the hope of all that at least two hours a week will be devoted to band work next year.

The Band has been of service in many ways to the schools of Tiffin. It played at all the football games, basket ball games, and for the lawn fetes of the various schools.

Since only three members are graduating, the Band next year, under the direction of Mr. L. S. Foght, should be the best that Tiffin High has had thus far.

The sections of the band were fairly well balanced this year. The reed section, composed of six clarinets and four saxophones, made a good showing. The bass section consisting of but one baritone and one tuba showed much improvement over last year. Where are all the trombone players in T. H. S.?

The drum section, although a little weak at first, made a "snap" in the band toward the middle of the year.

The cornet section proved to be the strongest. It was composed of ten players.

The Band needs the support of the school and also the musicians. Let's show the people of Tiffin that Tiffin High School can have a good band.

The Orchestra

This organization under the direction of Mr. L. S. Foght has had a very successful and enjoyable year. Every Wednesday afternoon strains of music were heard coming from the auditorium, for that was the hour of practice.

The orchestra furnished music for many programs given at the Junior High and at the Y. M. C. A. The orchestra aided the band with several numbers when the annual Band Concert was given. In order that the High School students might know what the orchestra was doing, a concert was given in one of the special assemblies. This year the orchestra was divided into two sections, one of which contested with the Bowling Green orchestra at Bowling Green, and the other with the Fostoria orchestra at Tiffin, in the music contests given in connection with the debates.

The graduating members wish the orchestra of '27 great success.

The Girl Reserves

Throughout the land there has arisen a great movement known as the Girl Reserve Movement. It is a High School branch of the National Y. W. C. A. Its purpose is, "To find and give the best," and its slogan, "To face life squarely."

This club came into existence in Tiffin High in November, 1925, when eleven Senior girls of '26 pledged that they would create and maintain such an organization. An experienced leader was obtained, Mrs. Clarence Lutz, who, with the faculty advisers, Miss Helen Engels, Miss Jane Welling and Miss Eva Good, has pushed the club to the front in High School and community activities.

It is my purpose in writing this article to briefly tell the purpose of a Girl Reserve Club and to review the activities in which the Club has taken part.

The founders of the Club in Tiffin High, known as the Aurora Triangle of the Girl Reserves, have realized that a challenge has come to the young woman of today to fit herself for assuming positions of spiritual, intellectual, physical, and social leadership. A Girl Reserve Club was organized with this aim in mind; not only to develop this four-square life, but also to strive to develop Christian Leadership. For the realization of these things, the girls pledged themselves to support this purpose:

To strive to develop through the help of Jesus Christ, first, a Spirit of Kindliness and Graciousness to all; second, a Desire for Knowledge and a Reverence to God; third, a Willingness to Answer the Call of Duty from whatever source it may arise."

The main activities started when Christmas Carols were sung to the shut-ins on Christmas Eve. Then a Chapel service was given by the group on February 23, in a special assembly. This opened the membership campaign. To strengthen this movement posters portraying some of the standards of the Club were placed in the corridors. These campaigns proved successful when the class of girls needed to carry on the work of the Club applied for membership. They were recognized at the service held March 16.

A service of great importance was rendered by the Club at Easter time, when each girl planted and cared for an Easter flower which was then taken to the Infirmary, and an appropriate program given. The Club

The Hi-Y Club

Shortly after the beginning of the school year the local Hi-Y, composed of eleven members, met with the clubs of Findlay, Upper Sandusky, Fostoria and Carey at Upper Sandusky to plan their work for the coming year. The Tiffin Club has striven very successfully to live up to their motto: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character." The Hi-Y dynamic is Contagious Christian Character. The slogan:

Clean Living
Clean Speech
Clean Scholarship
Clean Athletics

The following attended conventions in Middletown and Toledo: Williams, Zartman, Keller, R. Martin, Sherck, McElheny, Kurtzman, Barrick, McGinnis, McKinney, Courtney, Bowser, Bacon, Myers, accompanied by Voss and Hale of the local Y. M. C. A. Through the efforts of the Hi-Y two men of national prominence were brought to the high school to speak in assembly—Mr. Cecil H. Gamble and Mr. C. C. Robinson.

The most important piece of work which the Hi-Y accomplished was the organization of a voluntary Bible Study Class in the high school under the supervision of E. N. Hale, Rev. Mr. Courtney, Rev. Mr. Penhorwood, and Rev. Mr. Seidener. These classes have proven successful. The club this year has initiated the idea of taking complete charge of church services. At different times the Hi-Y took charge of services in the M. E. and M. P. Churches in Tiffin, the M. E. Churches in Greensprings and Fostoria, and the Presbyterian Church in Fremont.

At Christmas time the Hi-Y, together with the Girl Reserves sang carols at the St. Francis Home, the County Home, and to numerous shut-ins.

In the line of social events the Club had a Hallowee'n Party, a Father-Son Banquet, a Sweetheart Banquet, a dinner with the Girl Reserves, the Basketball Banquet, a feed and a stag at Highbanks,

A great amount of credit for the success of the Hi-Y is due to the leaders, Mr. Voss and Mr. Taggart (Uncle Harry); also to Prof. Frazier who is chairman of our Advisory Council.

The Philomathean Literary Society is the largest organization of Tiffin High School. Its standing is exceedingly high among all other organizations. In-as-much as it is the largest, it is also one of very great value to all those who are members, for the activities that are undertaken in the society are such that they are a great help to every girl. Its aim is to help develop girls intellectually and socially; and to teach girls the art of standing before an audience and expressing themselves creditably. This is done by varied problems consisting of Literary selections and world problems which are given Friday evening of each week. Parliamentary Law has been studied and practiced extensively in the Society this year.

An unusual interest has developed this year for all the work that has been undertaken, and as a result everyone in the Society has profited from it.

Each year finds the society ever increasing its activities, and we hope that the future holds even greater things in store for it than has the past.

The initiation into the Society of sixty-two girls was a big event that took place on October 15. The various groups of girls were put through many tasks which they were required to perform in order to become full fledged members of the Society. After each group had been taken care of, a procession of both the girls and boys was taken down to parade up and down the streets. This finally ended at the monument on the Court House lawn. Here a mock wedding ensued with all the attachments necessary for such a performance. Martha Beck and "Stick" Haley had the honor of being the bride and groom respectively.

This year the girls presented an entertainment for the purpose of raising funds for the annual banquet that is given each year for the Seniors. After the banquet a very enjoyable program was given. We hope every one enjoyed themselves, and the Literary Society as a whole takes this opportunity to thank everyone for their support.

This society was founded in 1904 when a constitution was drawn up by Milton Kanaga, Class of '05 and the by-laws by George Platt of '06.

The motto of the society is: "Be Earnest" and the programs and activities carried out by the members during its existence in Tiffin High have shown that the members try to be influenced by their motto.

Any boy of the High School, upon receiving the proper number of votes and assenting to the pledge of membership and paying the initiatory fee may be a member of this society.

The heliotrope is the society flower for it looks toward the sun as Eristonians look toward knowledge and better public speaking. All of the members realize that they have benefited a great deal by the speaking which they were called upon to do.

The society has contributed liberally of its membership to the various school activities. Eleven members of the society were on the football squad, seven on the basketball squad and five on the debate team during the last school year.

The standard of activity set by the members is to be maintained only by striving to live by the motto—"Be Earnest." A roll of forty-two with each one determined not to lower the standards, has given and will continue to give Tiffin High a valuable society conducted by valuable and capable fellows.

The society backs the school and the school backs the society and backing each other the fellowship derived therefrom will be of infinite value to student, school and society.

Debate

Prof. A. D. Hopkins judged the debate try-outs and chose Judson Ehrbar, Annabel Lott, Emanuel Mathews, Elizabeth Royer, Jesse Williams, Wendell McGinnis, Raymond Barrick and John Keller, for the varsity teams. The first debate as to the creation of an independent department of aviation was held March twelfth. Tiffin High negative team, Judson Ehrbar, Emanuel Mathews, Wendell McGinnis and John Keller did their best in Tiffin against the Fostoria affirmative team. Our debaters certainly showed spirit and held their own ground very well. Although Fostoria overstepped the agreed argument Tiffin lost three to nothing.

On the same night the affirmative team went to Bowling Green with the best intentions to gain a victory. The Tiffin debaters showed more enthusiasm than Bowling Green and confirmed more arguments but the blow came with a three to nothing defeat. After the first shock of defeat had passed, the debaters and music contestants had a very refreshing visit to Ireland's restaurant. The debaters making the trip were: Jesse Williams, Elizabeth Royer, Annabel Lott and Eddie Gilcher, our supply base!

March nineteenth Tiffin held a duel debate with Sandusky. The negative team met defeat at Sandusky, three to nothing. Sandusky royally treated John Keller, Eddie Gilcher and music contestants to a very pleasant dance in the school gym.

The affirmative team finally made a victory for Tiffin High. Elizabeth Royer and Annabel Lott debated the Sandusky girls' negative team and won three to nothing.

Coach Hoerger surely deserves not only the debaters' appreciation and thanks but that of the entire school for his patience, time, and encouragement.

March first the debaters chaperoned by Mr. Hoover and Coach Hoerger drove to Toledo to hear Eddie Rickenbacker and Colonel Mitchell debate the aviation question. There was no debate, however, but a very interesting talk and movie illustrations given by Col. Mitchell, who was very cleverly introduced by Eddie Rickenbacker.

The Tiffinian

The Tiffinian is the school paper of Tiffin High School. Since 1910 it has been the custom for each class to elect four members to this staff. Former Tiffinians had representatives from the Freshman Class at Monroe Street school but the Jr. High School is now represented instead.

Since it was originated, the Tiffinian has developed from a four-page newspaper to its present magazine form. The staff last year went back to the original custom to save money. With the help of the Jr. High School, the more expensive magazine form was used by the staff of the present year which boasts of having edited one of the biggest School papers, both in size and circulation, and one of the most representative papers ever put out for the students of Tiffin High School.

Every member of the Staff of '26 has worked faithfully and hard and the student body has cooperated so smoothly that it was possible to edit such an exceptional paper as this year's has been. At this time we will take the privilege of stating in plain words that if the Tiffinian of 1926 was extraordinary, it was due to "ALL" the students of Columbian High School and they are sincerely thanked and congratulated for interest and contributions.

We also wish to thank the merchants of Tiffin, without whose help it would be impossible to print a school paper. At least half of the income is derived from the merchants so the students must realize how essential advertising is to the paper.

At the Jr. High School a staff of eight was elected, and without having any previous experience they furnished a well balanced section. In a few years they should be able to have a school paper of their own and with a staff only from the Jr. High. Not much interest was shown among the students in this its first year at the new school and so much credit is due to Miss Edna Fisher, their faculty adviser, and to their staff.

In the main section of the paper, the Literary Section was capably handled by Helen Beidelman. It was due to her that such clever stories and poems were secured for this department.

Louise Mizen showed active interest in the "School News" section and with little assistance she kept the students informed of all activities.

Eleanor McKinney revamped the exchange department which this year was more complete than any previous exchange sections.

The alumni department was capably handled by Betty Leister;

while Ruth Homan and Brewer Pierson brought life to the pages by their clever jokes.

The athletic department was perhaps the most difficult of all but Ward Barrick and Paul Williams were fitted to meet this problem. Each write-up of the games was so styled that reading it was like seeing it over again.

The Business Staff of the Tiffinian was composed of John Keller, Ward Creeger and Ralph Smith. It was due to them that the paper was a financial success. Mr. C. W. Lutz acted as Faculty Advisor and supervised the paper and so he deserves much credit for his foresight of the difficulties and the way the staff surmounted them.

At the Jr. High School, all the staff members cooperated so ably with Ralph Keil, the editor of their department, and showed such interest that future Tiffinians will be more capably handled and more representative.

The Junior Class of the High School edited the April number, and with little previous experience, furnished a well-balanced paper. The staff chosen from the Junior Class was as follows:

Editorial Staff

Editor	Robert Martin
Assistant Editor	Loren Luke
Literary Editor	Edward Wolfe

Literary Staff

School News	Louise Mizen
Exchanges	Loren Luke
Athletics	Paul Williams
Alumni	Betty Leister
Jokes	Fred Tillotson, Ned Porter

Business Staff

Business Manager	Merrit Lucas
Advertising Managers	Ralph Smith, Charles McKinney
Faculty Advisor	Miss Good

In years to come, when you are perhaps far from this city, and you happen to think of the days when you were in High School, we of the Staff of '26 want you to get out your old Tiffinians and read them again, so you can recall old time friends and past activities.

The Science Club

The Science Club of the Tiffi High School re-assembled in September, 1925 and resumed its customary discussions of scientific subjects, various subjects being brought up too numerous to mention. Mr. C. W. Lutz, advisor of the club in 1924 again assumed a very active part in the club and with the addition of Mr. George Hoover, chemistry instructor and faculty advisor the club opened its sessions by electing the following officers:

President	Howard Grendon
Vice President	Alice Crabill
Secretary and Treasurer	Gloyd Troup

A new constitution was drawn up by a committee composed of Alice Crabill, Gloyd Troup and Emanuel Matthews. No radical changes were embodied in the new constitution except that the meeting night was changed from bi-monthly to weekly meetings.

The Club by no means confined itself to discussion alone, but was given the privilege of seeing many industrial plants such as the National Machine Company.

An exceedingly interesting lecture was given by Professor Hartell of Heidelberg college who explained the mysteries of Astronomy in a very delightful manner to the club.

Professor Kleckner of Heidelberg college also graciously consented to allow the club to visit Science Hall and see the mineralogical collection, this collection being one of the most complete in existence and the different formations were explained by him in a very interesting fashion, the club finding it a difficult matter to adjourn.

The Science Club placed before the members of the High School Assembly a very spectacular series of experiments consisting of liquid air on May 4th.

We, the retiring members of the Science Club, having been well satisfied with the work and accomplishments of the club, sincerely hope that the classmates whom the graduating class leaves behind will take a keen interest in this club and become enthusiastic supporters and lead the club successfully through the golden age of Science.

Howard T. Grendon, President.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1926, City of Tiffin, County of Seneca, and State of Ohio, do hereby acknowledge the inevitable loss of this life, and realizing the possibilities of the hereafter do in sound mind make this our last testament concerning the distribution of our rights and belongings; therefore know all men by these presents:

Item One

To all undergraduates we bequeath any and all unsigned diplomas.

To the sophomores we give the right to sit downstairs in the auditorium provided they make less noise than usual.

To all aspiring or perspiring football candidates we leave six open positions on the team.

To any undergraduate girl we transfer Bob Martin with full consent of Marge, provided the girl can spare time between classes to talk. (Evenings reserved).

To next year's Hi-Y convention delegates we give the right to have as good a time as we did at ours.

To any windy guy we leave John Zartman's place in the band. (Also one dilapidated tuba).

To the love-lorn who lose their heart's desire by graduation we leave our sympathy. No names mentioned.

Item Two

The following individual bequests we do ordain:

I, Jesse Williams, leave to Fred Tillotson my ability to make anyone laugh if they take a second look.

To Leon Best we leave Howard Grendon's splendid physical development.

To Marie Carlson we leave Marty Beck's powder if there's any left.

To Jim Flechtner we leave Bud Haefling's permanent wave.

To the indomitable Mike Harper we present Wardie's Grecian features and fullback ability, for he sure needs them.

To Harry Gear we leave Fat Charles' 12-inch cigarette holder.

To Hilda Bare we leave Liz Royer's ability to talk a leg off anyone.

To Jim Sertell we leave Howard Ehrenfried's lease on a bed in room 8.

I, Ruth DeMuth, leave to Soap Hanson my romantic visions and Sophomore wards to cherish.

To Eleanor Gahris we leave Mildred McElheny's quietness.

To Burdell Scheibley we leave the late John Keller's habits of tardiness and forgetfulness.

To Eddie Gilcher we leave Bobbie Byers' sweet disposition.

To Mike Cook we leave Herman Fey's bashfulness.

To Mr. Lutz we give full right to lecture on tardiness. (We won't hear it.)

I, John Barrick, present my inquisitiveness to Paul Courtney.

I, Eleanor McKinney, leave a few feet of height to anyone who might need it.

I, Walter Cox, leave the heavyweight title of my class to Hub Ewald providing he takes good care of it.

I, Bernard Omlor, being of unusual good nature bequeath to Eddie Wolfe my memoir "Wild Women I Have Met" with the hope that he will use it as much as I have.

I, Fat Rosenberger, do bequeath my latest farm implements and one Jersey cow to Carl McElheny provided he always remembers that wherever I planted my feet I raised dust.

I, Ethel Cole, bequeath my hurry to Louise Mizen.

I, Don Martin, bequeath my tango-dipperry-fox-i-trottum-Charleston to Ned Porter.

We leave Louie Cramer's place on the honor roll to Bob DeMuth.

I, Wendell McGinnis, (hero of a thousand parlors) leave my feminine amiability to Jim Fingerhuth.

I, Eugene Shepherd, will my right as assistant typing teacher to Paul Everhart.

I, Mary Best, give to Marian Sexton my walk to school.

To Roger Harshman we leave Mike Harshman's Bolshevistik tools and compounds in order to keep it in the family. Also his text books written by Thaddeus Bomberski, the Great Russian leader.

I, Gabrielle Delvenne, do give to Connie Kime my silk stockings hoping that they will do as much for her as they have done for me.

To Ralph Smith we give Bobbie Stein's scholarship to Blow Hard Tech.

I, Kathryn Friderici, do give to Dot Nehoff my superfluous common sense.

I, Kelly Arnold, leave to Verland Stevenson my gift as a natural cheer-leader.

We leave Esther Belle's detecting knack to Evelyn Schaeffer.

To Daisy Powley we leave Spike Kennedy's grin.

I, Arlene Yundt, do present my seriousness and dreams to Jane Naylor.

We leave Annabelle Lott's scream to Eileen Leahy.

I, Raymond Bare, leave to Frank Fassler my heart-breaking ability as he seems to have had experience.

I, Nellie Grant, give to Midge Ingman my latest song hit "I Could Be Happy With One Little Boy."

I, Marge Hyter, leave to Muggs Stevenson my air of independence.

I, Joe Gerhard, leave all my old motorcycles to Sleepy Swanders.

We give Mr. Hoover the right to spring all the surprise tests that he wishes.

We ask Mr. Hoover to appoint a policeman to watch the tours through the Glass House next year.

We do hereby appoint Duke Hoerger as guardian of the orphans of the deceased as he has had much experience.

We ask that Mr. Frazier be appointed executor without bond.

We give to the Juniors our dignity. (God Help Them.)

The residue after funeral expenses are paid we leave to the Freshmen that they may have a good start.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 9th day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, 1926.

(Signed) CLASS OF 1926.

Bob Kurtzman.

Witnessed by: Jane Welling, Hie Engels, Bennie Hoover.

Harry Craig, Notary Public. My commission expired.

The Class Prophecy

GRANDMOTHER'S QUILT

You have all heard the stories grandmother tells on a cold, wintry Saturday afternoon when she takes that precious box of patches from her bed-room shelf and sits by the fire sewing them together. The stories seem to have occurred so long ago, seem so old-fashioned, but in Grandmother's heart they are just as thrilling and vivid as our wild escapades of this prosperous nineteen sixty-six.

Forty years ago our grandmother was in the midst of graduation excitement, was really just a young, pretty girl. Her name was then Eleanor McKinney.

Today Grandmother finished her quilt and this is what she told us: "Many years ago, my dears, I formed many interesting friendships with the girls and boys of the Class of Nineteen Twenty-six.

"Many had high ambitions, many wished to do great things, but had no idea what things they should attempt. Today I have finished this lovely quilt and it is indeed lovely because each small patch means a happy, critical, or exciting incident in the lives of my dear old friends of Twenty-six.

"The center of this quilt, you see, forms a large white rose. There were many weddings in our class. I received these dainty patches from:

"Ruth Arnold of Toledo;

"Mary Best, who eloped to Fostoria;

"Ethel Cole, who had a brilliant church wedding in Cleveland;

"Elizabeth Crabill who was secretly married for two years;

"Marjorie Craun who spent her honeymoon at Coney Island;

"Ruth DeMuth of Norfolk, Virginia;

"Ruth DeWald, who has a lovely home on Long Island;

"Alice Folkhard, who is helping her husband operate a moving grocery. They are making loads of money.

"Lucille Fry, who is very helpful to her husband by being a charming hostess;

"Kathryn Frederici of Boston, Massachusetts;

"Marjorie Hyter, who is now very popular in Mexico, (Ohio);

"Evelyn Kelley, who is very happy in Florida;

"Wanda Kinney, who has been such an excellent cook her husband is the fattest man in two counties;

"Ruth Lantz, who is still very young looking. (I think she makes up).

"Annabel Lott of Detroit, Michigan;

"Mildred McElheny, who is just as calm and good natured as ever.

"Ola Niederhauser of Java;

"Helen Osterwalder, who still has all her hair and just adores dancing;

"Thelma Rider, who is now the modiste for Gloria Swanson's daughter;

"Loree Smith, who has made success as a poet;

"Mary Snyder, who is well known for her kindness to animals;

"Mana Sutphin, who still sings in grand opera;

"Louisa Taylor, who has actually become fat. Looks fine!

"Marjorie Uberroth of New York, New York;

"Iris Wagner of San Francisco, California;

"Lucille Weddell, who is still the same laughing, peppy 'Diz';

"Dorothy Beecraft who is still so dainty and pink and white looking;

"Here are a few green patches that form leaves for the rose. They do not represent the Irish, however, but the grass widows.

"After Mrs. Kramer's maiden name was restored to her, she became a nurse and a writer (?) and is now in Cuba.

"Since Ruth DeMuth's divorce from Eugene Shepherd, she has been in Utah advancing 'Y' ideals.

"Mrs. Zartman has started an orphan's amusement park in Boston.

"Mrs. L. V. Smythe has just returned to Detroit from Europe where she studied theatrics. It is rumored that she will remarry her last husband.

"Mrs. Jentkin has at last returned from Java, minus Mr. Jentkin, but it is said she is progressing nicely with a New Yorker;

"Mrs. Martin has just lately decided to give up opera for Bob again;

"Mrs. Iris Wagner has certainly made a stage career for herself since her latest disposal.

"These are patches from nurses' apparel. They were sent by:

"Miss Mildred McConnahay who is in South America, a second Florence Nightingale.

"Miss Mary Sears who is also in South America. It is said she will marry soon, poor dear.

"Arlene Gurney, who is very successful in Chicago.

"Dorothy Dauwalter who has become Dr. Zartman's head nurse in the operating-room at Ford Hospital, Detroit.

"Here are the gay patches. My dear old friends certainly had many thrills when they wore the dresses from which these were taken.

"Martha Beck sent this rose patch from Pittsburgh where she made her debut in the "Student Prince." She has shown talent in many different things and surely has had a great career.

"Helen Beidelman sent this dainty blue patch from Cleveland. She has made Ohio famous by her rapid success in concert work.

"Alice Crabill sent this orchid patch from Boenus Aires where she has become a world-known movie vamp.

"Martha Cross wore red when she dramatized her latest play "Me Old Man" before the governor of Missouri.

"Florence Dardee sent this wee yellow patch from Spain. She is very wealthy and operates the newest chemical laboratory there.)

"Gabrielle Delvenne sent this scarlet patch from Paris where she is an interpreter for the American Consul.

"Nellie Grant wore this orchid material when she danced for the King of Spain.

"Kathryn Gross sent this blue patch from Cleveland where she sings bedtime lullabies at station WEAR.

"Lorene Kennedy wore silver metal cloth when she received the Noble prize for contributing to the world the means to keep the "Mind at Work."

"Esther Belle McElheny sent this beaded, scarlet metal cloth from Strassburg where she dramatically sang 'Show Me the Way to go Home.'

"Elizabeth Royer sent this rubber cloth from New Zealand where she has discovered a way to reduce by carbonated mud baths.

"Catherine Shank wore green when she danced in Hawaii where she is a reformer of 'Hula' dancers.

"Evelyn Smith sent this baby blue patch from London where she played for Rockmaninoff. She is also a very noted composer.

"Florence Taylor wore black when she presented her latest book of poems to the Queen of England.

"Gladys Welch wore grey when she defeated Europe's speediest typist.

"Arlene Yundt sent this pink patch from Canada where she spends the winter writing her well known descriptions and novels.

"Evelyn King wore black and white when she opened her Florida tea gardens.

"Lillian Dunn wore henna when she became the Prima Domino for the Metropolitan Insurance Orchestra.

"Yvonne Cook sent this yellow patch from Honduras where she write 'How to Feed the Family.'

"Florence Anderson sent this 'Atmosphere' from Fostoria where she is basketball coach.

"Gladys Bishop sent this from Tiffin where she is teaching Latin in Tiffin High School.

"Fifian Byers sent rose from Tiffin where she is a designer for the Boston Store.

"Leah Armbruster sent blue from Tiffin where she recently returned after a world tour on a kiddy car.

"Mildred Ehrenfried sent orange from Tiffin where she operates an electric hair curling machine for Miss Ruth Whitaker who owns the 'Friz' barber shop.

"Miss Norma Worlfe sent this tiny green patch from Toledo where she is librarian in the Insane Hospital.

"Genevieve Wahrer wore grey when she opened court in Reno, Nevada, where she is a Justice of the Peace.

"Edna Loesser sent a black patch from the South Sea Islands where she is a missionary.

"Pauline Martin sent gold from Arabia where she invented steel mesh hair nets.

"Estella and Celia Morehart sent pink and blue from Tiffin. They now operate the Lyric.

My Mickey

Ears like perky satin bows,
Erect above a short pug nose,
 And eyes so deeply sweet,
Two rows of teeth white as milk,
A coat of black, smooth as silk,
 And dancing little feet.
A thousand wiles, oh, so tricky,
Has my bulldog, named just Mickey.

Snow-white vest as well as face,
Form of lithe and restless grace,
 Poetry in motion,
Chasing a ball or sly, sleek cat,
Or nosing madly for a rat,
When in the notion.
 Always with a charm so tricky,
 Who? My bulldog, named just Mickey.

And when the evening lamps are lit,
And near the radio we sit,
 Steeped in its magic tones,
Upon my lap she'll softly creep,
And catching rabbits in her sleep,
 She jerks and groans,
Oh, yes, she has a manner tricky
This Boston bulldog, named just Mickey.

Who can her affection measure,
Richer far than golden treasure,
Joyous, whimsical and gay,
In our hearts she's come to stay,
Coquettish, piquant, oh! so tricky,
My Boston bull dog, named just Mickey!

Alumni

The Alumni association of the Tiffin High School held the annual banquet on June 11, 1925, at the Masonic Temple. The class of 1925 was welcomed into the association.

On April 5 and 6, 1926, under the direction of Mr. C. O. Locke and Mr. William Adams, the Alumni gave a very clear and well-rendered play called "Outward Bound." The following were in the cast: John Merkelbach, Alfred Keller, Robert Stofer, Charles O. Locke, Robert L. Rohe, Paul Ebel, Miss Blanche Gosling, Miss Mildred Kramer, Miss Faye Young.

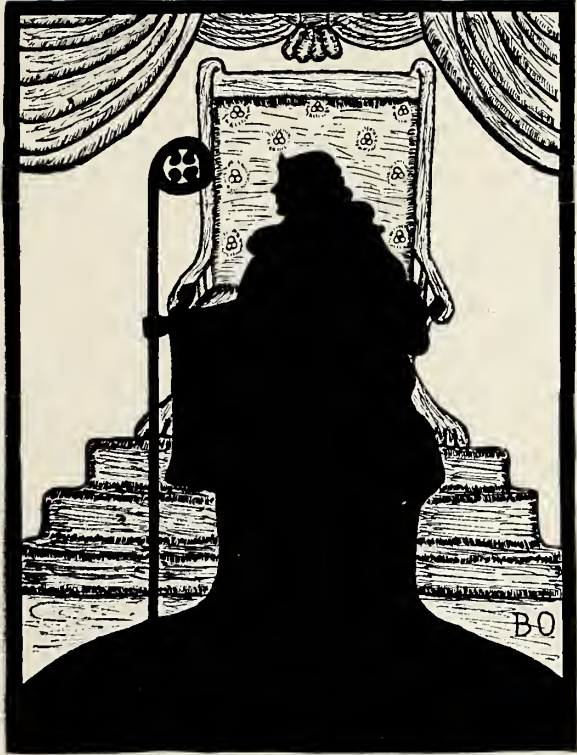

The Alumni held the annual meeting to elect officers and transact other business, on April 9, 1926 at the Columbia High School. The following officers were elected for the year 1926-27:

President	Ruth Lonsway
Vice President	Mary Hartman
Secretary	Garland Hinsman
Financial Secretary	Anna Kennedy

The annual banquet will be held on June 10, 1926.

Linnah M. Ludwig, '05, Secretary 1925-26.

THE STAFF

Oh this Tiffin High School Annual
It sure "am" a wonderful thing.
The printer gets all the money ?
The Staff gets all the blame.

WHY?

"Why doesn't she go with him? Are they mad? Who was she with? Why didn't he tell me he was taking her? Why didn't she ask me to her party? Why does she always pick on me?" Such are the questions commonly heard in and about our institution of learning. Everybody loathes such a busy-body, who delights in knowing everyone's business but who is not so delighted to correct his own faults. When a very curious student slyly whispers bits of gossip to a friend, when he "listens in" for "juicy bits" on others' conversations or hungrily scans another's note for something new to spread around, then an unseen observer may rightly condemn him. He has ample reasons for saying, in a tone of disgust, "Curiosity killed a cat" and he might also sarcastically add "But a cat has nine lives."

He is right in condemning such curiosity, but absolutely wrong in condemning all curiosity. The value of the desire to know can not be overestimated.

Did you ever stop to think what mighty wonders that little word "Why" has accomplished in this world? It was through a little boy's wondering why the steam in the teakettle blew the lid off, that our steam engine was invented. This great discovery of the power of steam has helped our nation to attain its present position.

It was because of another man's wondering why that the mixture of chemicals, composing gunpowder was discovered. It was through curiosity in wondering what caused lightning, and what it was, that electricity was discovered. Few things have benefited the world so greatly as electricity.

You will say "This is to be expected for they are geniuses." That may be the name applied to them but it was their keen observance of every day incidents that made them wonder why, it was their curiosity that urged them to answer the question "Why."

These are cases of curiosity as well as the first ones, the great difference lies in the words—trained and untrained.

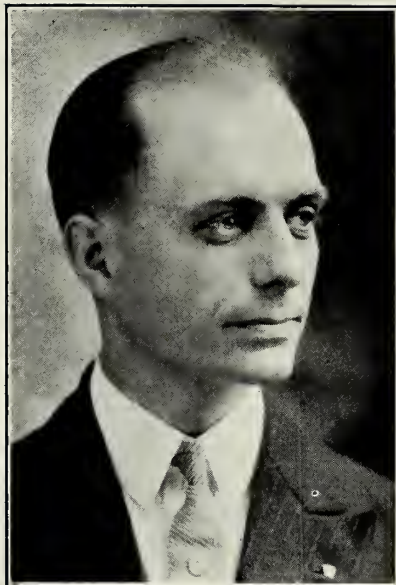

We are all naturally curious from childhood—in fact curiosity is one of the signs of a growing mind. A child without an ever ready "Why" is difficult to find. The direction to which our whys turn now, is, to some extent, due to the training of early years. If, when we asked a volley of questions about some new object, we were gently turned aside by our parents again and again, our initiative and determination to find out unknown things, was weakened. It was then, no doubt, that our curious little minds would say, "I wonder—but I don't care." Thus it may have been our parents' fault that some of us have developed the wrong style of curiosity.

We, ourselves may have lost out in our youth because we hate to study. Curiosity is just as important to us as youths as to the child, for it is through curiosity in this world of mysteries that we may acquire permanent knowledge. Our minds need curiosity as a stimulant. It marks the difference between a dreamer, a plodder and a leader. The dreamer imagine wonderful things but has no curiosity as to developing them. The plodder takes things as they come without asking any questions and without probing into the world's endless wonders. But the leader dreams his dreams, of what might be, wonders why they can't be and then is curious enough to experiment and see why it can or can not be.

When we become travelers in life we must also remember that those who are not curious about everyday happenings and new ideas, are left behind as "back numbers." Remember your curiosity is a power at your command to work for you for good or bad, just as fire may be your friend or enemy. Our curiosity may make us charming, educated young men and women. It may also make us a nuisance. May we always aim our whys in the right direction and shoot straight.

"Deeds, Not Words"—why did the Class of '26 choose such a motto? Was it just because the phrase sounded good or did they really intend to make it their ideal for which to strive? Well, if you had watched them in their three years at Columbian High you would have seen that the motto burned brightly in the minds of the pupils as they performed their daily tasks.

"Deeds, Not Words." Have you any idea what those few words mean? They stand for less talk and more action. You know for yourself that a person doesn't get any place these days with what he is going to do, but he can easily make a name for himself by accomplishing the work he has to do. For instance, the Politician tells the Public he is going to bring good to his people when he gets into office. The new manager tells the boss what HE is going to do when HE takes over the new job. But what attention does the Public or the boss pay to those "going to do" words? None—instead they give you a trial and then tell you what you are worth.

Another thing, if you say you are going to do things and don't do them you become a liar in the eyes of the Public. Therefore you are neither believed nor trusted and when you are not trusted by your fellow-men you become an outlaw among them.

Of what good are you on this earth if you do not perform a worthy deed once in awhile? Kind deeds are the basis of most friendships so why not get in the habit of performing them? And when an opportunity comes to enact a deed, do it quickly and unselfishly. Don't excuse yourself like the lady who says, "When you need any help, JUST CALL ME." You can call her but it doesn't mean anything for she always has an excellent string of excuses to give to you, such as "I promised Mrs. Jones I would attend her tea and card party this afternoon and I couldn't possibly disappoint her." You know its true for you have done it yourself.

Now don't let anyone class you as a "going to do." That is why the Class of '26 chose and lived up to the motto "Deeds, Not Words." Remember the School Bond Parade (which aided in getting the new Junior High School) how we "blow our eyes out" on fifes and horns just to show the Public we were in earnest. Don't forget the Sophomore Class Party at which every one had a good time. Just recall how the class aided in publishing the Tiffinian. They really helped to make it a success. Then look at the athletes, debaters, and musicians that the Class of '26 turned over to Tiffin High. Remember also how successful the Junior Fair was and the feed we gave to the Class of '25? It was not so very long ago that the Senior Class spent an enjoyable evening at the Masonic Temple where the senior party was staged. These are just a few of the instances in which the Class of '26 performed Deeds, and Not Words. If the Class of '26 was triumphant with such a motto standing before them why not make it yours?

other requirements, we are now awaiting our Freshman Class Night when we will bid good-bye to the Junior High where we have studied for the past two years. We shall eagerly anticipate, however, joining our upper-classmen next year and helping to add fresh laurels to the name of the Columbian High School of Tiffin, Ohio.

Football

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

The grid season began with the opening of school. In the preliminary meeting at three-thirty p. m. on the first day about forty suits were distributed and lockers were assigned by Coach Struble.

The following night the initial practice was held, which consisted of punting and also fundamental practice. The somewhat violent exercise did not seem to agree with most of the prospects as was evident by the sight of the great number of cripples seen limping through the halls of T. H. S. But the soreness wore off as the days went by and finally we started scrimmaging. This gave our green men a fair idea of what a football game is like.

The cancelling of the game with Bellevue gave us an extra week of practice to prepare for the Findlay game.

We trolleyed to Findlay on October 3 for our first game. In this game the team showed that it could and would fight, and it never gave up until the fatal whistle blew, which decided that the score should be 14 to 0 in favor of Findlay. The opponents had the advantage over our aggregation in that they were playing their third game, while we were playing our first, and with practically a green team besides.

On the following Saturday we opened our season at home with Upper Sandusky visiting us. We showed that we profited by the experience gained from our first game. In this tilt we scored our first touchdown and it was over a team against which Findlay had tried in vain, two weeks before to score.

Fingerhuth crossed the line for the touchdown after receiving a pass from Welter. Haley kicked goal and the final score was 7 to 0.

The Bradner game was supposed to be a set-up, but things looked pretty black for the Blue and Gold warriors when in the first few minutes of play the invaders pulled the unexpected and tallied a six-pointer. But luckily the try for point was unsuccessful and this gave our team some encouragement and a chance to win which they did by a score of 7 to 6; thanks to the brilliant run of our famed captain, Dwight Haley. Our hero broke loose for thirty yards and was down a yard from goal. Tough luck! Haley hurt his dome so Barrick plunged the remaining distance for a touchdown, after which Haley recovered enough to kick goal.

Sandusky again proved their ability as swimmers or mud-boaters by ducking us for a score of 13 to 0. The game was played in mud and water almost a foot deep and in the midst of a drizzling rain.

A week later our trusties got rid of the static of the previous week and tuned in on another victory by defeating the big boys from Carey. The bright spots of this fray were; the blocking of a Carey punt by Ab Wellman, and the recovering of the ball by Alex McCartan on Carey's seven yard line, the touchdown scored by Barrick after Alex McCartan's recovery, Haley's place kick for point, and—Ah Yes!— we should not forget how Jimmie Sertell put an end to the visitor's aerial attack by intercepting a pass and running thirty yards before being brought to earth. The final score was 7 to 0.

Our next game was scheduled with Fostoria for November seventh, one week later. If ever a team practiced we surely did that week. There was no crabbing nor loafing and everyone worked together. But we received a good trolley ride out of it just the same. The game was called off after we arrived there because of the wet condition of the field. It was then arranged to play a post-season game on December fifth, sixth, or seventh.

Williard was our next victim. This game was to be a conditioner for our game with the Jr. Home. The headlinesman certainly did like to see us carry the ball for big gains and most of all to see Capt. Haley punt, because every time we made eight or ten yards—which was quite often—that man would have the ref. penalize us five yards, because the moon was not made of green cheese. He said it was for off-side or back-field in motion. We abided with this till the end of the first half, when a Tiffin man was appointed to assist him. They couldn't agree so their power was taken away and given to the umpire. In the third quarter Haley received a beautiful pass from Jim Fingerhuth and tore fifty yards for a touchdown. He then place-kicked for point and was successful. Luck turned against us and after Coach Struble had run in almost all of the subs, the ball was fumbled by Haley and it bounced into the waiting arms of an opponent who ran forty yards for a touchdown. Thanks to Lady Luck, they missed the try for point and we came home victorious, 7 to 6. Pretty stiff conditioner.

The game with the Jr. Home was the last home game of the season and also proved to be the closing game of the 1925 season owing to the cancelling of the Fostoria game by Fostoria officials.

Two days before the game our star quarter-back, Jim Fingerhuth, broke his shoulder and another quarter had to be found to fill the vacancy. Howie Beisner proved to be the man for the place and he played like a veteran through the whole game.

Although our heroes were battling against heavy odds they were determined to bring glory and victory to Dear Old Tiffin High. The victory was not forthcoming but the glory came when Wardie Barrick scored the first touchdown. The try for point was unsuccessful and a few minutes later a field goal was scored by the Red and White. The half ended the score of 6 to 3.

In the first part of the third quarter the rivals rang up seven points, but a little later our boys came back for six points when "Midget" Welter went across the line after receiving a pass from Beisner. But we gave up the ghost when with only a minute or two to play the Juniors, after a series of passes tallied another sixpointer and made the point after touchdown. The fatal score was 17 to 12.

This game ended another successful grid season for T. H. S. The team is to be congratulated for its fine showing considering the fact that it was almost wholly composed of green material. But what was green material soon developed into fighting demons, thanks to the successful efforts of our Coach Marion H. Struble.

HERMAN EHRENFRIED

"Herm"

"Herm was an all around player. He could play the backfield or end and was proficient in both. More credit is due him than he has received. He is a Senior so will not be with us next year.

HOWARD BEISNER

"Howdy"

"Howdy" played during the whole Junior Home game and merited for himself a berth on next year's team. He is fast and hard to tackle. Much is expected of you next year "Howdy," so Good Luck.

Quarterback '25

"Bob" Kurtzman and "Gory" Amlin were two hard fighters and when called upon responded exceptionally well. Coach was never worried when he put either in the game because he knew they would hold their own. They are both Seniors.

Right and Left Tackle '25

Jesse Williams, Bob Martin and Jack Kaler are to be thanked and complimented for their hard work and interest in the welfare of the team. Although they were not of the elect they deserve as much credit as the regular, because when called upon they delivered the goods.

J

Capt. Dwight Haley "Snooks" "Stick"

Retiring Captain and Captain-Elect Haley is one of the greatest athletes T. H. S. has ever had—a second Red Grange. He sure did strut his onions even though handicapped by muddy fields encountered in almost every game. He is the only gridder in the history of T. H. S. to have the honor of being Captain in the Junior Year and a much greater honor of being re-elected. Three cheers and good luck to Capt. Haley.

Right End '23, Right Half '24, '25

Ward Barrick "Wardie"

Wardie surely could tear things up. When some foolish fellow would try to stop Wardie, down into the mud would go the unhappy victim's face and Ward goes around him. When we needed a yard or two Ward was there to get it. Too bad Ward leaves this year; his absence will be keenly felt.

Full Back '24, '25

James Fingerhuth "Jim"

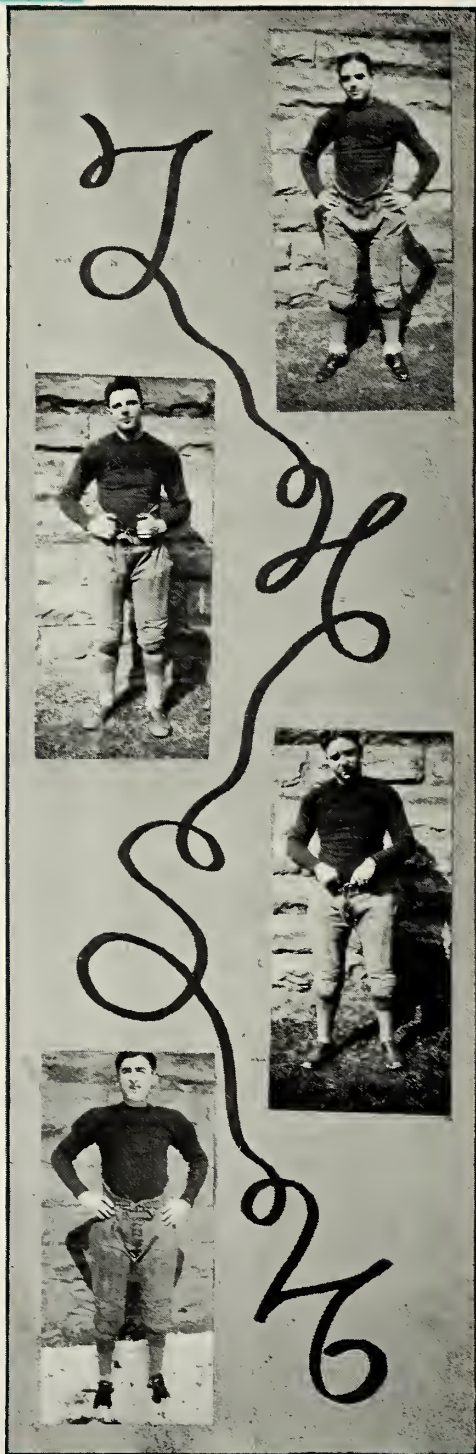

Did Jimmie know how to play? I'll say he did, and always made the right play at the right time, much to the agony of opponents. He was all pep and imbued it into the rest of the team. He could pass and punt and at receiving he was right there.

Quarterback '25

Ray Welter "Midget" "Tiny"

One of our most consistent ground gainers, and when a few yards are needed, just call 'em "Tiny". When it came to interference and tackling he was as good as we had. Many a poor half back thought he had run into a freight when Ray hit him. When he hit 'em they stayed hit.

Quarterback '24, Halfback '25

Wendell McGinnis

"Windy"

"Windy" is another "West Side Irishman" and a fighter too. He was never satisfied until he could do everything just right. He was a lover of good sportsmanship and a hard worker, which makes him an outstanding model from which to copy. "Windy" is also a Senior and will leave us this year.

Left End '25

Edwin Haefling

"Bud" "Budget"

"Bud" was a natural born wingman. He could make holes, carry the ball, catch passes and last but not least he could drop-kick the best, as to distance, of any of the squad, even though he did not get to show his skill along this line. "Bud" was never caught sleeping and always turned his plays in. He leaves us this year and his loss will be keenly felt.

Right End '25

Albert Wellman

"Ab"

The hefty man from the North End. Although "Ab" was generally late for a game, he always made up for it in the game. He was the mainstay of the line this year. He played both guard and tackle and deserves much credit for the showing of the team. It's too bad he doesn't have another year to give to T. H. S. The position left vacant will be hard to fill, both as to size and to worth.

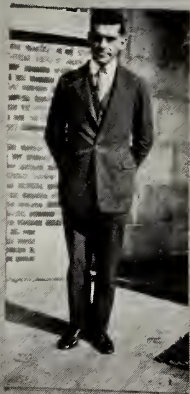

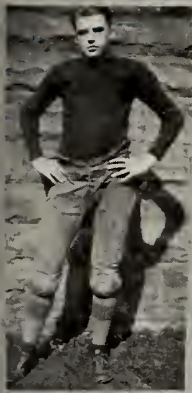

Left Guard '24, '25

James Sertell

"Jimmy" "Jim"

"Jim" was small but mighty. He would sock some victim back of the dome and then turn around and look up so innocent-like. He liked to settle into the path of some speedy "Tar Wagon" and right there, stop the brute. He would listen to the signals, wiggle his ears, and lo: there was a hole for our ball-toters to step through. He is only a Sophomore, so watch him when he is a Junior and a Senior.

26

Alexander McCartan

"Alex"

The fighting "West Side Irishman." "Alex" was a new man at the game this year, but he developed into a real star. He would always break through on punts and was down the field waiting for the ball to get there. If the opponents wanted to make anything around his side of the line, they had to use four or five men on him, and then they weren't able to take him out of the way. "Alex" leaves this year but we hope to see him on some big college team in the near future.

Right Tackle '25

Paul Sherck

"Sherckie" "Paulie"

"Sherckie" came into the limelight in the Carey game, and he played like an "old trusty" all the time, blocking holes or getting through and nabbing the ball-toters for a loss. He surely was a fighter and he never quit or layed down on the job. Only a Junior, so he will be back again next year to tear things up.

Center '25

Herbert Ewald

"Herb" "Hub"

"Hub" is the "little" boy from the farm. This was his first year at the game, but it was not evident by the way he played. He fought from the beginning of the season to the end and he surely did tear up the mud. "Hub" will be back again next year to bring on more destruction.

Left Tackle '25

Coach Marion H. Struble

Our Faithful Old Coach

He had the welfare of the team at heart always. Coach is responsible for the good showing of the team this year and it cannot be denied that he has turned out many of the best teams in this section of Ohio. The Senior fellows wish you continued good luck.

Basketball

Soon after the football season ended, Coach Struble sent out a call for candidates and about forty responded. Since only one regular and two subs were left from the banner team of the year before, the outlook seemed dark indeed. However, after the number of candidates had been sifted down and the suits had been given out, Coach called the first ten together and gave them a "talking to." He told them of the difficult schedule and the lack of material but stated that he put his confidence in them and told them that if they would cooperate with him he would put out a winning team. After getting used to playing together in the first few games, they justified his confidence and played real basketball. They would have entered the semi-finals of the district tournament but for a one-point defeat.

The first game was away from home with Pemberville. Pemberville had already played three games, so it was not a surprise when our boys suffered an 18 to 11 defeat. However, vengeance was sweet when we beat them on our floor New Year's afternoon. The score was 12 to 7.

Then came the game to which everybody had been looking forward: The first game with the Junior Home. The Home boys were expected to win but not by the score of 24 to 12. The game was at the Junior Auditorium, so just wait till we get them on our floor.

The next game was with Fostoria. After the showing in the Junior Home game, Fostoria was expected to win in a walk. They won, but the score was 26 to 23. Tough luck, Gang.

Then our boys traveled to Upper Sandusky and came home on the long end of a 25 to 12 score. They suffered for it on the following evening at the hands of Findlay. Tiffin 14, Findlay 37.

About this time Coach Struble decided something was wrong, so he made some changes. McGinnis was sent to guard in the place of Barrick and Fingerhuth took the vacancy at forward; Sherk was placed at guard in Sertell's place.

Did the new team work? They surely did! Carey came and went to the tune of a 37 to 5 score. The real test came in the game with Galion. Galion had an exceptionally strong team and if Mr. Frazier's pets could tramp on them—and they did! The score was 24 to 15 in favor of Tiffin. 'Nuff said.

In the next game at Bellevue, our athletes completely outplayed them, but a long shot in the last minute gave them the game by a score of 14 to 13.

The next game, with Sycamore, was the third straight away-from-home game for the Blue and Gold dribblers. We might also suggest some new improvements for Sycamore, such as—new building, new floor, baskets with nets, backboards for the baskets, seats for the audience, and showers. (Next year's team should also furnish Sherck with a pair of glasses.) Oh, yes—Sycamore won 26 to 23.

Our boys then opened up and won the next three games. Ada lost 19 to 13. Calvert High lost 25 to 1. (The one point was donated to them.) However, in a few years our neighbors should develop into a real threat. Then in the long anticipated game with the Junior Home, the Blue and Gold triumphed 27 to 19, but earned the decision. Haley was elected Captain just before the game and celebrated by scoring 14 points.

The next game was the last regular game of the season. It was with Sandusky and the jinx-team conquered 34 to 24.

Then came the tournament which was held at Tiffin. Our sheiks were given a good chance to win by knocking off Bellevue 16 to 24. However, the hopes of the fans were broken four hours later when the fresh team from Norwalk conquered Tiffin 25 to 23, with the winning basket in the last minute of play.

The season can be called successful because our boys won half of the games, scoring 336 points to the opponents' 292 points.

Howard Beisner, "Benny" "Howdy"

"Benny" started the season with little experience but when he got started he was there with the goods. He developed into a sure shot and was next to Haley in total points with 42. During the tournament "Benny" opened up and was given Honorable Mention in the all tournament selection. He is only a Junior so we hope to hear more about Benny next year.

Forward '26

James Fingerhuth "Jim"

"Jim" was not a regular at the beginning of the season, but he soon showed Coach where he belonged and became a regular forward. Was he there with the passing? Oh, Boy! "Jim" scored 36 points this year, but he will do better next year as he is a Junior.

Forward '26

Captain Dwight Haley "Stick" "Snooks"

"Stick" is probably the best basket-ball player that ever entered Tiffin High. He scored 228 points out of his team's total of 336. Being an excellent shot and a wonderful dribbler, he was hard to stop, as is shown in the Carey game when he scored 36 points. We congratulate "Snooks" on being chosen all-tournament forward, which he justly deserved. "Stick" is a Junior, so we won't lose him just yet.

Forward '24, '25, Center '26

Paul Sherck "Sherkie" "Ladies' Man"

The "Ladies' Man" started the season on the bench, but "Sherkie" never shirks, so he became a regular guard. He worked hard enough in the tournament to get Honorable Mention. With the experience from this year "Sherkie" and the other three Juniors on the team ought to make Coach Struble's heart beat faster.

Guard '26

Wendell McGinnis "Windy"

Poor Forwards. They sure had a tough time trying to pull anything on "Windy" and never had a chance on spectacular stuff. His hard and clean playing was a great help in holding the enemy to low scores. Coach will have a tough time filling "Windy's" shoes.

Forward '25, Guard '26

WARD BARRICK

“Wardie” “Slicker”

“Wardie” was a regular part of the season and he surely did work hard. Whenever called upon, he went in and did his best. Coach knew he could depend on “Wardie” to deliver and “Slicker” always gave a good account of himself. Tough luck, “Wardie” grabs his “Sheepskin” in June.

Guard '25, '26

HERMAN EHRENFRIED

“Herm” “Toots”

“Herm” is one of those fellows it is hard to keep track of and he surely helped out when two points were needed very badly. “Toots” leaves us this year.

Forward '26

JESSE WILLIAMS

“Jess”

His name speaks for itself! Jess was so small he made the guards dizzy chasing around after him and during this time “Stick” would run up a big score. “Jess” goes out into the cold world next year.

Forward '26

JAMES SERTELL

“Jimmie”

“Jimmie” was a regular part of the season and showed enough promise to take the vacant guard position next year. He is only a Sophomore, so wait 'till he's a Senior.

Guard '26

ROBERT FARREL

“Bob”

Bob stuck out and near the end of the season he received his reward. A little more experience, Bob, and you can step out with the best of 'em. Only a Junior.

Guard '26

Girls' Basketball

Tiffin High has a girls basket ball team at last—but not least, for the team has made victories of three out of five games. The idea of a girls team set the students of Columbia in an uproar of applause and the evenings of try-outs extra chairs had to be brought in the gymnasium to accomodate numerous candidates for squad. The squad was picked—and realizing her ability Annabelle Lott was elected Captain. Coach Liles then started to strut her stuff—classy uniforms of Blue and Gold were purchased and the girls entered their first season by playing the Y Business Girls on the memorable (for Columbia) Saturday, February 6.

Line-up—Mizen, Conrad, forwards; Lott, Beck, guards; Naylor, center; Hasemeyer, side center.

Ending the evening with a score of 19 to 7 in our favor.

The second game was played February 7 with the Junior Home girls.

Line-up—Mizen, Conrad-Smith, forwards; Beck-Lobdell, Chamberlain, guards; Naylor-Berleykamp, centers; Hasemeyer, side center.

Ending with a 42-4 score, their gain.

March 4, a game with T. B. U.

Line-up—Mizen, Conrad-Smith, forwards; Beck, Chamberlain, Lobdell, guards; Naylor, center; Hasemeyer, side center.

Score of 24-11 our loss.

Calvert entered our den on March 7.

Line-up—Mizen, Smith-Conrad, forwards; Beck-Lobdell, Lott, guards; Berleykamp, center; Hasemeyer, side center.

Score of 29-2 our victory.

The last game played with the Y Business Girls on March 19.

Line-up—Conrad, Smith-Mizen, forwards; Beck-Lobdell, Chamberlain, guards; Berleykamp, center; Wagner-Wetter, side centers.

Ending our victory with 24-8 score.

Girls' Basketball

CAPTAIN ANNABELLE LOTT "Ann"

A game fighter. She was a fighting guard when she fell. We shall never see her real game for she leaves with the class of '26. Guard '26.

MARTHA BECK "Becky" "Smoky"

She could play any position but defended as a guard. The team will miss "Smoky" next year. Guard '26.

ELIZABETH CHAMBERLAIN "Betty" "Eliza"

Our wall of defense. She came through with the goods. The best of the news is, she will be ready next year with flying colors. Guard '28.

GLADYS LOBDELL "Tomboy"

A good sport. Lobdell will count big in next year's fate. Guard '28.

JOSEPHINE BLACK "Jo"

A hard worker. Jo has a big future in the coming year. Guard '27.

LOUISE MIZEN "Mizen" "Bobby"

Our basket shooter. Bobby showed good head work combined with the ability to play. Tiffin High expects a great deal of you, Bobby, next year. Forward '27.

ANNABELLE SMITH "Smithy"

Smithy was always there when she was needed. Speedy—good pass work and good shot, with two years ahead. Smithy should hold the hearts of all the fans. Forward '28.

MARY LOU CONRAD "Conrad"

A good shot. Conrad made the points in the games with good, steady playing. With good playing in the next two years, Conrad, we hope you are awarded as captain. Forward '28.

JANE NAYLOR "Janie" "Naylor"

Naylor could out-jump anyone. She could reach up in the air and pull the ball down. She showed good pass work and proved a real player—one might say the back-bone of the team. Center '27.

ALMEDA BARLEKAMP "Al" "Kampie"

A faithful worker. Al didn't have much of a chance to show her stuff, but next year—. Center '27.

MARY ELLEN HASEMEYER "Spud"

Spud was the steadiest player on the team. She played a real game and continued her reputation throughout the season. With a combination of Naylor and Spud, well—? They will show you next year. Side Center '27.

MADELINE WETTER "Wetter"

Wetter had tough luck, thus, a loss to the team, for she just got started when sickness deprived us of her support, but here's to the next two years. Side Center '27.

IRIS WAGNER "Wagner"

Our faithful manager who arranged all our good times and games. Wagner leaves with the rest of the seniors. Side Center '26.

April 15, the squad and others interested had a game after which a banquet was prepared by the kindness of Miss Rechtenwald and a few of her students. The squad were all present with B. B. letters, and thus ended the first season.

took charge of two Church services, one at the M. P. Church on the evening of May 2, and another at the Church of Christ on May 9. At these services a tableau representing Biblical Women was presented by the Club, in charge of Esther Belle McElheny. Lorene Kennedy offered the prayer, Annabel Lott read the scripture, Marjorie Uberroth gave a vocal solo, and the President of the Club gave an Address. Sacred Songs were sung by the Girl Reserve Choir.

At the meetings held every Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. various intellectual programs have been given and many fine speakers have been enjoyed.

The Social activities include a banquet with the Hi-Y, Mother's Tea Party for new members, Mother-Daughter Banquet, various hikes and the Senior Farewell.

Even though the Club has been so recently organized, it can be seen by this brief review that the Girl Reserves are an active, worth-while organization working that they might find the "life abundant" for themselves and their school-mates and that they might become a social force for the extension of the Kingdom of God.

Here's to the Girl Reserves: May their force as a character-building organization ever increase and may they never lose sight of the high ideals as expressed in their code:

“Gracious in manner
Impartial in judgment
Ready for Service
Loyal to friends.

Reaching toward the best,
Earnest in purpose
Seeing the beautiful
Eager for knowledge
Reverent to God
Victorious over self
Ever dependable
Sincere at all times.”

Ruth DeMuth, President.

The Class Prophecy

"Barbara Zeiter wore brown in her last picture in which she proves to be the "wickedest vamp" in the movies.

"Mary Neikirk sent this yellow patch from Tiffin where she is Clerk of Courts.

"Irma Reese wore crimson when she appeared in 'Who's Who.'

"Last but most noted is Miss Leah Yeager, President of our United States. We always knew a girl could do it and she certainly can. We're all proud we know her.

"The four corners and the border are made from the patches sent to me by the illustrious men of our class. Of course they never write as often as the girls.

"Glenn Allbaugh sent this patch from Washington, D. C. He is now confidential advisor to the President. He was always so talkative.

"Alex McCartan is a professor of Oratory at Harvard.

"Bernard Omler is well known for giving the Grand Canyon a new coat of paint.

"Raymond Bare is in Iceland as a proprietor of the new 'Boots Bob Barber Shop.'

"John Barrick has become a noted forester in Canada.

"Ward Barrick is in Hollywood and has become a second Valentino.

"Ernest Baugher of Venice, (Ohio), is a famous painter, i. e. house painter.

"Harold Bowser is nursemaid for a battleship at Annapolis.

"Bobbie Byers is an absent-minded professor of Latin at Yale.

"Owen Charles has become a soap box orator of the I. W. W.

"Ralph Cleveland is a veterinary surgeon for 'Yellow Cabs.'

"Hugh Cleveland has joined the movies and doubles for Larry Seeman.

"Walter Cox plays that laughing sax in Judd's orchestra.

"Louis Cramer is an insurance salesman in Chile.

"John Deimer is noted as a decomposer of Iceburgs.

"Norman Egbert is now head janitor of T. H. S. squad.

"Judson Ehrbar directs his Madison Square Garden orchestra and has New York at his feet.

"Herman Ehrenfried represents America in Olympic Games.

"Howard Ehrenfried is working (?) in Fremont as a model for Arrow Collar ads.

"Herman Fey is a sky pilot in Bascom.

"Bob Flechtner is a clown in Barnum & Bailey's circus.

"George Fox is known as the jazziest (?) man on earth.

"Walter Garland has discovered a new planet.

"Joseph Gerhard is professor of English at Heidelberg.

"Howard Grendon is in Tiffin as the Monarch's chief metallurgist.

"Morris Hahn has become a ladies' man.

"Claude Hampshire is mayor of Attica.

"Myron Harshman is an inventor of Physical Theories.

"Glenn Hoffman is in Dayton teaching aviation to the fire flies.

"John Keller is the editor of the Kalamazoo Crier.

"Bob Kurtzman is a prize fighter, caveman, juggler.

"Don Martin advertises eyebrow and eyelash beautifiers.

"Emanuel Matthews is Mars' chief photographer.

"Wendell McGinnis, the hero of a thousand parlors, is now Judge of the Supreme Court.

"Bill Philips is a model for Kuppenheimer House of Good Clothes.

"Paul Rober has invented a silent victrola.

"Kenneth Rosenberger is a Yale graduate cheer leader.

"Alton Rosenblatt has inherited the Rosenblatt junk grave yard.

"Clark Scherber is the only doctor of corns in Tiffin.

"Eugene Shepherd teaches movie villians how to smile.

"Roscoe Sigler is a shoe clerk for Sears-Roebuck.

"Bob Stein takes the part of a blood hound in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'

"Gloyd Troup has successfully shot Niagara Falls.

"John Waldvogel is a noted architect.

"Albert Wellman is head of the county workhouse.

"Raymond Welter took Michigan's coach job from 'Hurry-up Yost.'

"Jesse Williams, editor of the 'Friday Morning Post,' sent this gay patch . It surely must be from his tie.

"John Zartman is a horse doctor at Bascom.

"Edwin Haeffling has manufactured chewing gum parking blocks for Tiffin High students.

"Charles Manges trains cooties for the circus.

"John King is private nurse for George Washington.

"Ligouri Amlin has become the butter and egg man of Paris.

"Roger Bacon is owner of Bacon's Mill at the great Tiffin Rapids.

"Now, dear ones, you can readily see why this is such a lovely quilt and why it is so dear to me. I hope all my classmates are as happy always as I am."

Along the Street

It frowned upon me ev'ry morning
That house of brick and cold gray stone,
And 'mid all of its grand surroundings
It seemed to stand out—quite alone;
Because I sought out something pretty
I coldly turned my head away,
To better see a smiling cottage,
Which bravely, gladly, met the day.

One morn that gray house I was passing
And then I stopped and caught my breath,
For from those flowers by the doorway
There came the hushing thought—a death.
My pretty sympathetic cottage
Across the way, no longer smiled,
And by those buds and long white ribbon
I knew, at once, it was a child.

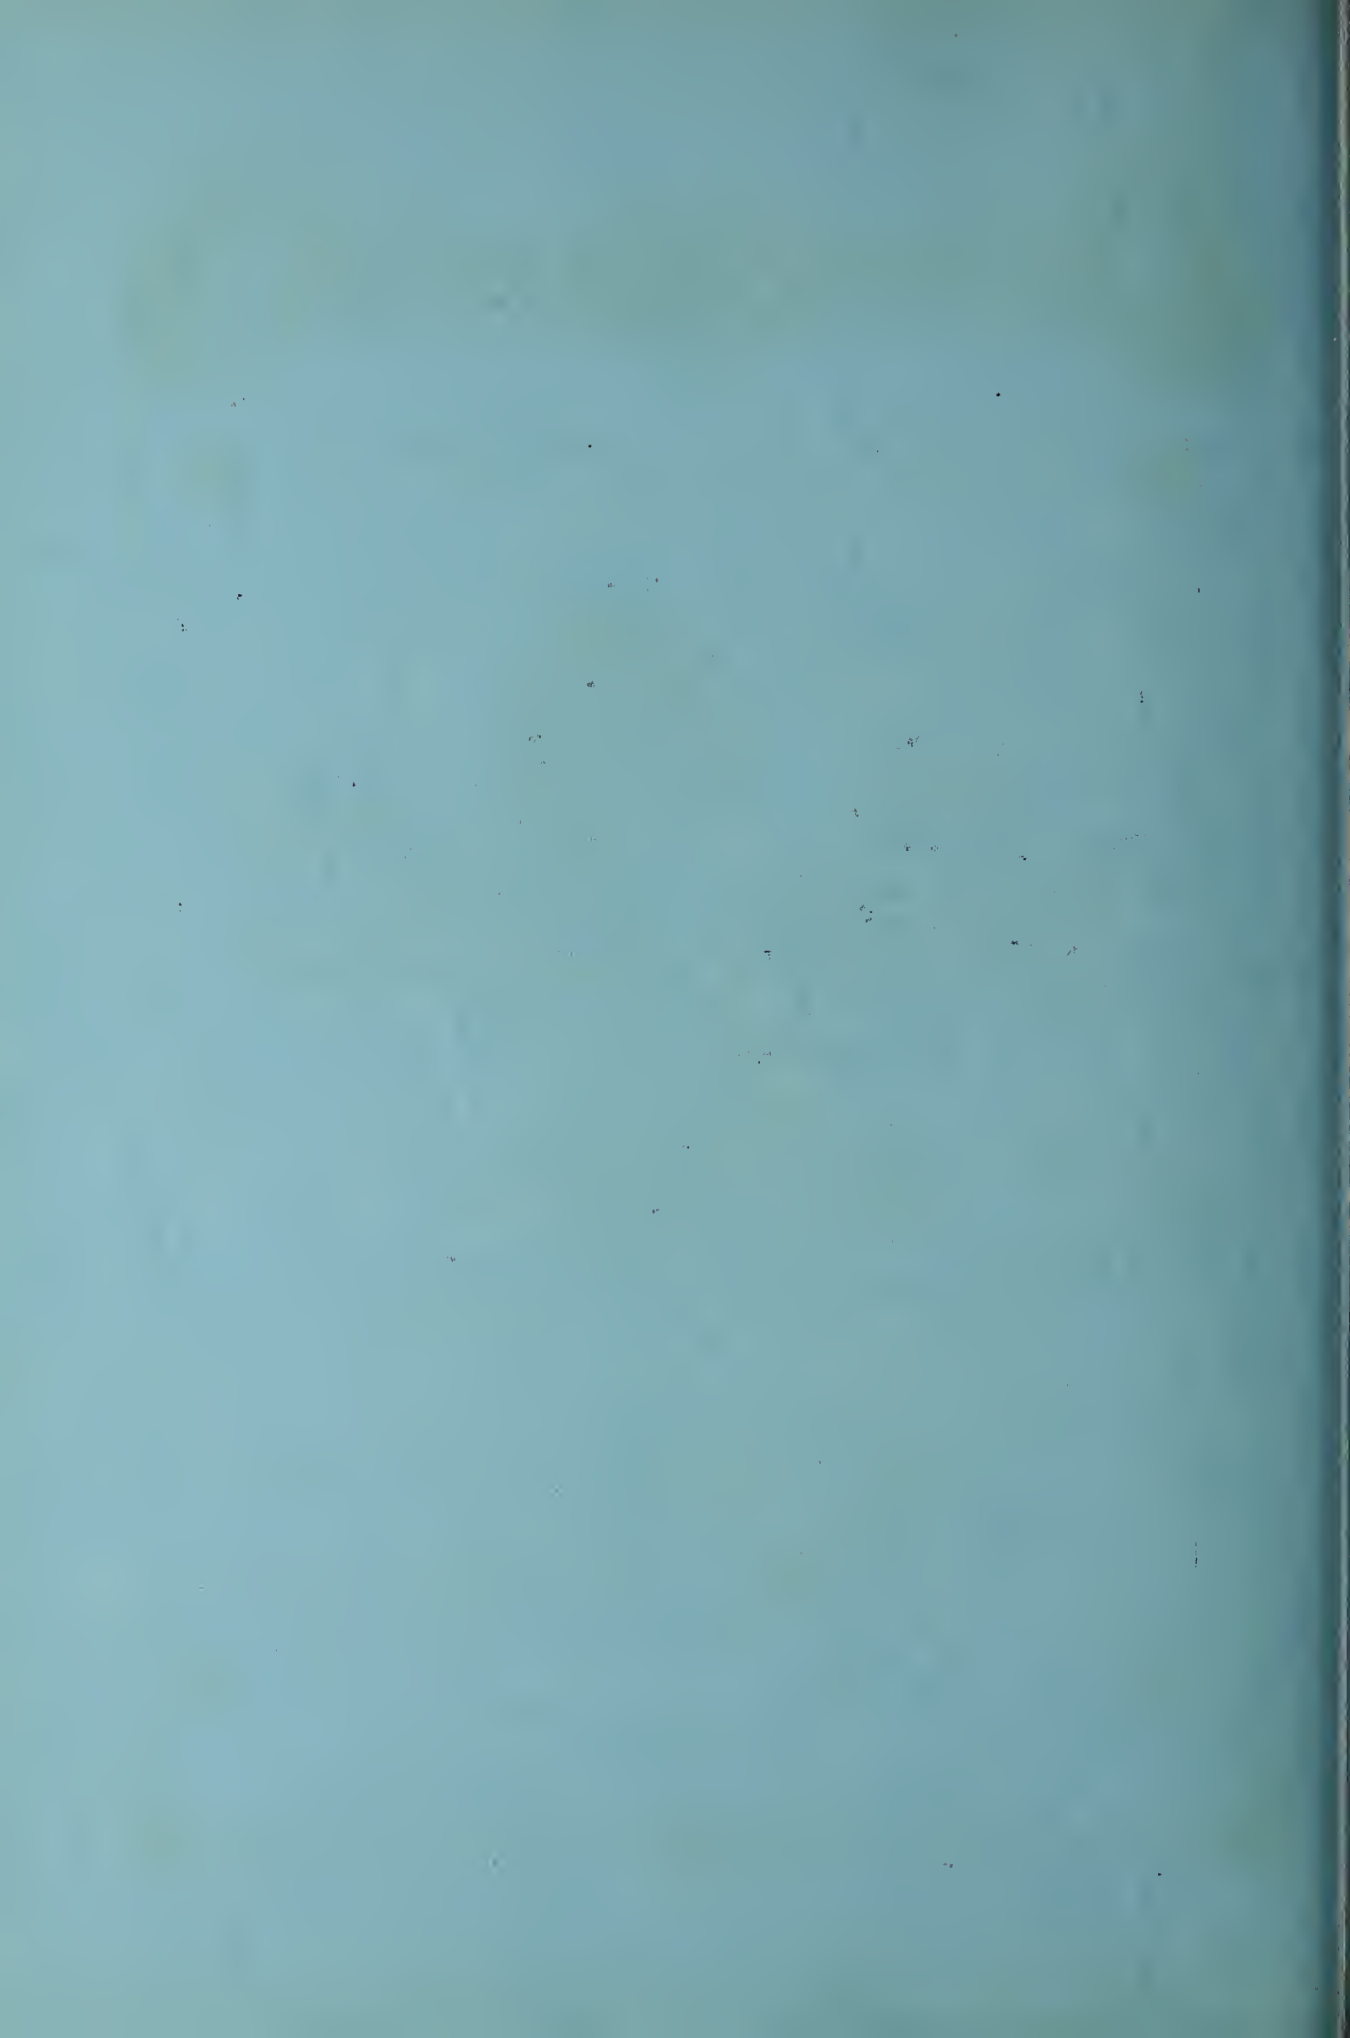

Now, in my life I'd known surprises,
And too I'd found some truth and worth,
And then I knew I might find heart throbs,
In all the corners of this earth;
Though well I knew I might find sorrow,
In ev'ry place that I might roam
I never thought until that moment,
That that cold house might be a home.

A kiss is a peculiar proposition, of no use to one, but an awful to two. The boy gets it for nothing, the young man steals it, and the old man buys it, the baby's right, the lover's privilege, and the hypocrite's mask.

A kiss is to a young girl—Faith.
To a married woman—Hope.
To an old maid—Charity.

A visitor to a country town, talking to a local resident, was criticizing the one paper the town boasted.

"Well," he concluded, "I'll say this for the editor—he can be the most sarcastic fellow that ever was when he tries."

"How's that?" asked the other.

"Why, in last week's issue the feature entitled 'Local Intelligence' was only about three inches in length."

Pat Was There With Answers

An Irishman was an employee at a lumber office. The proprietors decided to have some fun with the new Irish hand. Pat was duly left in charge of the office, with instructions to take all orders which might come in during their absence. Going to a nearby drug store, they proceeded to call up the lumber company's office, and the following conversation ensued:

"Hello. Is this the East Side Lumber Company?"

"Yes, sir. And what would you be havin'?"

"Take an order, will you?"

"Sure. That's what I'm here for."

"Please send me up a thousand knot-holes."

"What's that?"

"One thousand knot-holes."

"Well, now, and ain't that a bloomin' shame. I'm sorry, but we are just out of them."

"How's that?"

"Just sold them to a brewery."

"To the brewery? What do they want with them?"

"By golly, and they use them for bung-holes in barrels."

TIFFIN BUSINESS UNIVERSITY

Over 100 T. H. S. graduates by actual count, have completed courses at T. B. U. and were at work in office positions today, May 18, 1926.

126 students went directly from school into office or teaching positions in 1926. 51 positions have been filled since January 1st. One of the young women received a $1400 position, and one of the young men $200 per month.

The following positions will indicate whether a thorough commercial training pays.

1 Marie Clouse—Federal Government	$125 per month
2 Alphonse Harlett—Public Accounting	$200 per month
3 Marjorie DeRan—Complete Course	$100 per month
4 Orla Holcomb—State Auditing Department .	$200 per month
5 Gladys Huffman—Teaching Mt. Gilead Hi .	$150 per month
